

Tyler Minogue: Player Profile

In the first of a series of updates on past Genesee Rapids players, we had the opportunity to catch up with 2015 Rapids player, Tyler Minogue. Tyler played his collegiate baseball at Bellarmine University in Louisville, Kentucky.

Minogue reflected on his time playing for the Rapids as “one of the best experiences I have had. I still bring up stories to this day about that summer. Mr. Kerr and the coaching staff truly cared about me as a player but also as a person and helped to grow in both.”

Currently, Tyler is working for the Greater Louisville FCA, covering 16 schools and 1 college where he daily gets to live out his passion to reach coaches and athletes with the hope of Jesus and equip them to use their platform for his glory.

To find out more about what Tyler is doing, visit <http://fcalou.org/staff>.